

Curriculum Vitae

Morten KLINGE

Director of the EIB

This CV is based on information provided to the EIB by the person concerned.

Personal Information:

- Danish

Career:

- Nov 20 until now
 - Danish Ministry of Industry, Business and Financial affairs, Department of Financial Affairs, Copenhagen, Denmark
 - Tasks within economic analysis and policy development.
 - I work in the Department of Financial Affairs and work with the insurance industry and representing Denmark in international financial institutions.
- Nov 19 – Oct 20
 - AP Pension, Executive Office, Copenhagen, Denmark
 - Business Partner and strategic advisor to the CEO.
 - Tasks within project management, economic analysis and design of operating and governance models. I represent the C-suite in a range of projects and participate in all meetings of the executive management and the board of directors.
- Sep 17 – Oct 19
 - Deloitte, Department of Strategy and Operations, Copenhagen, Denmark
 - Tasks within project management, financial and data analysis. The projects were focused on market analysis, budget assessments and reviews of regulatory regimes.
 - Assignments for public authorities and financial institutions, including Danish and European regulatory bodies.
 - Responsible for regular meetings in my department and social activities.
- June 15 – July 17
 - KPMG, Public & Financial Sector department, Copenhagen, Denmark
 - Tasks within project management, data analysis and sales. Projects were focused on digitisation of the public sector and compliance within the financial sector.
 - Client work for major financial institutions in Denmark, Sweden and Finland.
 - Chosen as first “KPMG Trusted Talent” in Denmark and representative at Copenhagen Business School and Copenhagen University.
- Oct 13- Oct 15
 - Youth Red Cross of Denmark, National Board, Copenhagen, Denmark

- National Treasurer and member of the National Board. Responsible for budgetary affairs on the Board and member of the executive Committee.
- I was chosen for the position in a three-way election based on my experience with the organisation. Further details are listed under Charitable Work in this resume.

- May 14 – June 15
 - Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Denmark, Executive Office, Copenhagen, Denmark
 - Development of policy recommendations, drafting of speeches for the minister as well as a range of ad-hoc tasks regarding the day-to-day affairs of the minister.
 - Secretary for the Foreign Policy Committee of the Danish Parliament.

Education:

- Sep 12 – Aug 17
 - Copenhagen University, Copenhagen, Denmark
 - Graduate degree in economics involving advanced coursework in econometrics, micro- and macroeconomics (cand.polit).
 - Elective coursework within strategy, political economics and international relations.
 - Top 10 % highest GPA in my class and chosen as a student representative.

- Sep 16 – Jan 17
 - Ritsumeikan University, Kyoto, Japan
 - Coursework within political economics, international relations and the role of financial institutions in developing economies.
 - Chosen as valedictorian.

- July 14
 - The University of Oxford, Oxford, Great Britain
 - I followed the courses “Global political economy” and “International relations of the Middle East”.
 - Graduated with distinction and the highest grade in the class “Global political economy”.

- July 13
 - The London School of Economics and Political Science, London, Great Britain.
 - I followed the course “The Middle East in Global Politics”, which I graduated with the grade A.

- Jan 12 – May 12
 - Bond University, Queensland, Australia
 - Coursework within Business, International Relations and Public Speaking.

Other:

- Language skills: English